(Continued from last week.) How Watch Cases are Made. In 1875, thirteen men comprised the entire working force used in the manufacture of the James Boar Gold Watch Case. Now over five hundred are employed, and the number is constantly increasing. The reson of this increase is this: In the James Boar Gold Watch Case all the metal in sight and suject to wear is solid gold, while therepaginder, which only lends stren th to the case, is of stronger metal than gold, giving g id where gold is needed, and strong, el. tie metal where sizes the and during a watch case better that soil and at ONE-HALF the cost. Over 200,000 of these cases have been sold, and every jeweler in the country can testify to their quality and
